The requirements are:

- live in DBar or very close
- willingness to walk the neighborhood, side walks, streets, parks, hiking trails
- have availability for 2-4 hours per day mainly between the hours of 8AM-3PM, some evening work assignments 7:00PM-9:00PM
- heavy text messaging, time sensitive texts, photo taking. Good, reliable cell phone with texting and photo capturing feature REQUIRED
- reliable transportation that will be used during work, must own vehicle in cases of transportation of dogs. No uber/lyft, bus, or bicycle for transportation.
- animal work experience NOT necessary. We will train anyone who is willing to thoroughly take personal responsibility of their actions + work.

Competitive Pay: $14.25-17.10 per hour. 3-week training: $12.00 / July 1, 2019 training rate changes to $13.25.

Our handler's average about $16.65+ per hour.

Assignments located in Diamond Bar, Walnut, Hacienda Heights, Chino Hills, and other surrounding cities. There is great flexibility if your schedule changes for we can trade and cover each others' assignments. We are looking for about 3-4 hours per day, about 3-4 days per week, our needs are 60% Wednesday-Sunday and 40% Monday-Tuesday. Majority of dog walking, feeding, care, will be between 8:00AM-12:00PM and some evening 7:30PM-9:00PM assignments. The evening assignments are paid at $17.15 per hour.

We decline a good number of clients/dogs because we do not take problem dogs of any kind (mean, aggressive, demanding clients). Must be willing to handle multiple small, medium to large dogs at the same time. Transportation of at least 2 dogs is required in your personal vehicle. This is 70% of the time.

Serious, mature, responsible college , adults are great. Although this is part time work, long term employment commitment is preferred. Our high-net worth clients demand proper care AND a maturity level that is calm, collected, able to foresee problems and think for themselves for solutions.
